All of my friends have such expansive bucket lists.
But mine is a little pail into comparison.
I don't quite have a handle on mine yet...

Traffic Update

Moggill Road Corridor Upgrade Project - Stage 1

UPCOMING TRAFFIC CHANGES - KEATING STREET

WHAT WORKS ARE COMING UP?

There will be access and on-street parking changes for Keating Street from 14 January 2024 to allow for the regrading and reconstruction of intersection with Coonan Street.

These access changes will remain in place for three months, weather and site conditions permitting.

WHEN WILL THIS WORK TAKE PLACE?

Day works will be carried out Monday to Saturday from 7.00am to 6.00pm.

Night works will be carried out Sunday to Thursday from 7.30pm to 5.30am.

To ensure the safety of motorists and road workers and to minimise traffic and service disruptions, some work is required to be undertaken at night when traffic volumes are lowest.

ACCESS TO KEATING STREET from January 14:

- Keating Street will be changed to one-way only temporarily to allow for construction activities. Residents will need to enter Keating Street from Coonan Street and exit onto Clarence Road.
- Left turn from Keating Street to Coonan Street will be temporarily closed.
- Left turn into Keating Street from Coonan Street will remain open.
- No entry to Keating Street from Clarence Road.

ACCESS TO INDOOROOPILLY CENTRAL SHOPPING CENTRE from January 14:

- Entry driveway from Keating Street to Indooroopilly Central will remain open.
- The exit from Indooroopilly Central to Keating Street will be temporarily closed.
- All other centre driveways remain open.

ACCESS TO 56 COONAN STREET CARPARK

- Carpark entry from Keating Street will remain open

KEATING STREET – ON STREET PARKING CHANGES

- Some on street parking on Keating Street will be permanently removed (see map) due to construction activities and changing traffic conditions.
- Vehicles parking in this area may be towed.
- Linemarking and signage to advise of changed parking conditions will be installed.

HOW MIGHT THIS WORK IMPACT ME?

- Access changes: for residents of Keating Street and visitors to Indooroopilly Central Shopping Centre.
- Traffic control: reduced speed limits, lane closures, changes to traffic flow and short-term traffic disruptions.
- Noise, dust and vibration: noise and possible dust and vibration may be experienced from the construction activities.

Discussion Group Thursday @ 10am.
Should Australia become a cashless Society?

Cooking Review by Chris Walker

Review of Nana's self crusting Quiche:

Thanks to Craig cooking for Retirees.

This is A double tap of Craig's recipe.

The big one in the centre holds four serves, (two have disappeared at this point)

The small ones one serve each.

Each quiche is only a small serve, with a salad it is very adequate meal.

The ramekins are about a cup full, 250 grams.

They are good for lunches or snacks.

I have tried several of Craig's recipes and look forward to trying more.

Sizzling News

IMS – Bunnings SAUSAGE SIZZLE - Sat 6 Jan 2024 -

Many thanks and congratulations to the Sausage sizzle team who turned up at Bunnings last Saturday 6.

It was a record day for a Bunnings BBQ, selling over 800 sausages needing over 40 loaves of bread. It was a good result for IMS making over $2000 for our efforts.

We ran out of sausages just before close down. Coke supplies ran out much earlier.

Many thanks to Seton Porter for buying the initial stock and then carting in extra cartons of coke, onions and bread through the day.

Our thanks go to:

Delusions

You can't ever believe your eyes.

This is called relief inversion.

The two pictures are exactly the same, just rotated upside down.

Most people have a subconscious interpretation of images based on the assumption that objects are illuminated from above. We expect the light source to come from the upper left...

Essentially, our brain interprets shadows as indicators of depth, considering them to be depressions or valleys. When shadows appear on the northern side of features due to a southern light source (or vice versa in the Southern Hemisphere), our brain reads this correctly.

However, when the light source is from the north (or the south in the Southern Hemisphere), shadows appear on the southern side of features, causing our brain to misinterpret these shadows, seeing elevated areas as depressions and depressed areas as elevations.

Workshop News

We desperately need a few of these in the workshop:

Mouse secretly filmed tidying man's shed every night.

Photographer who noticed his items were mysteriously moving around discovered an industrious rodent was organizing his workbench.

Call that a Knife? This is a knife Dept.

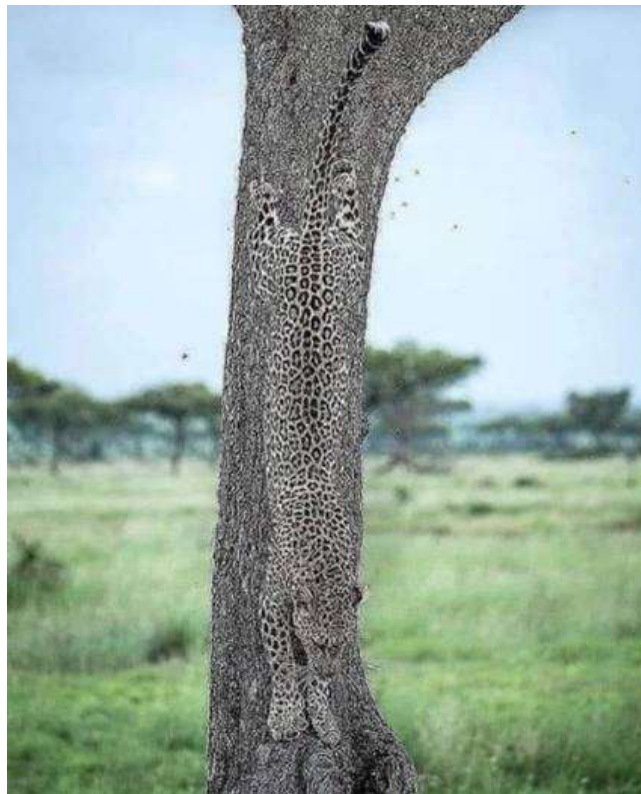

Your Editor has been bragging that since his recent cataract surgery he is now able to see the feet on the flying foxes as they fly over in the evening...

In 2020, a resident in the Philippines entered his garage only to find this bat hanging there. Known as Flying Foxes, these creatures boast a wingspan of almost 6 feet, making them the largest bats on the planet.

The Taringa Flying Foxes are midgets in comparison...

And finally for this week

If a clown farts...

does it smell funny?

And now for another round of groaners and eye-rolls...

Knock knock...

Who's there?

Panther...

Panther who?

Panther no panth, I'm going thwimmin'!

I got kicked out of mime club again.

Must've been something I said.

Our local German bakery was broken into last night ...

... luckily, nothing was stolen.

The sky was looking ominous so I asked Siri, "Surely, it's not going to rain today?"

And she replied, "Yes it is, and don't call me Shirley."

That was when I realized I'd left my phone on Airplane mode.

I was in a restaurant in Paris and ordered the Napoleon Chicken.

When the dish arrived, I was surprised to find very little meat on it, and it was mainly carcass.

I asked the waiter why and he said: "We only use zee Boneypart."

Did you hear about the head of lettuce who left his job at the church to become a baseball referee? He is now known as the Holy Romaine Umpire.

So after winning the game, I decided to throw the ball into the crowd, like they do on the T.V. Apparently, it's unacceptable in bowling.

I ate all the cheese yesterday and it's raining today.
Ain't no sunshine when cheese gone.

The worst pub I've ever been in was called The Fiddle.
It was a vile inn.

I've learned so much from my mistakes that I'm thinking of making a few more.

Was just called down to Human Resources.
Apparently replying "Unsubscribe" to every email they send is frowned upon.

I accidentally swallowed a bunch of scrabble tiles.
My next trip to the bathroom could spell disaster.

What's a pirate's favorite letter?
You would think it's R, but it be the C.

My wife was disappointed when she found out why my friends call me The Love Machine.
Because I suck at tennis.

A pirate with a steering wheel hanging out of the front of his pants walks into a bar. The bartender says, "Hey man, what's up with that steering wheel? Doesn't it bother you?"
The pirate replies, "Arrr! It's drivin' me nuts!"
