Bike Group News

Earlier this year we managed to gather a number of kid's bikes together and send them to Mission Australia via the BCC's community liaison officer working in the southern Brisbane area (Inala, Carole Park).

Moggill Road Corridor Upgrade Project - Stage 1

February 2024 update – Moggill Road traffic switch (inbound)

WHAT WORKS ARE COMING UP?

Coming from the western suburbs you will notice significant traffic changes to Moggill Road from early March.

WHERE WILL THE WORKS BE?

Please see the map to show the upcoming traffic arrangements.

HOW MIGHT THIS WORK IMPACT ME?

Traffic Changes

If you are heading towards Brisbane City (inbound) you must keep left after Station Road intersection.

If you are planning to turn right into Coonan Street you must keep right after Station Road intersection.

You will no longer be able to turn left towards the city at the temporary signaled intersection.

Anyone who misses the turn off to the city will be able to U-turn at Belgrave Rd and Allwood Street.

For residents of the service road previously using Nelson Parade, access will now be via Moggill Road.

There will be reduced speed limits, lane closures, changes to traffic flow and short-term traffic disruptions.

Construction impacts

Noise, dust and vibration: noise and possible dust and vibration may be experienced from the construction activities.

Temporary lighting: lighting towers are required to be used to light work areas at night to ensure worker safety.

Astro News

Startling new images from NASA suggests Donald Trump may be only the 2nd biggest astronomic feature in the whole universe. (likely this is AI generated image, don't believe everything you see)

And finally this week...

Police are investigating a suspicious incident on a motorway and would like to speak to a Mr Wile E Coyote

And now we continue to Robin's fave part of the newsletter...

I ordered a new desk from IKEA called 'Cömmåndø'
It has no drawers.

Our Chef Craig is very smart.
He uses butter in everything so there's no margarine for error.

One of the animals in the local zoo is pregnant, but nobody is comfortable talking about it.
It's the elephant in the womb.

Did you know Yoda has a last name?
It's Layheehoo...

A wizard asked me to proof read one of his scrolls last week.
Actually, it was more of a spell check.

I spent all day yesterday bobbing up and down in the water.
It's been my fave thing to do ever since I was a little buoy.

A mummy covered in chocolate and nuts has been discovered in Egypt.
Archaeologists believe it may be the Pharaoh Rocher.

This morning I saw my neighbour talking to her cat; it was obvious the poor woman thought the cat understood her. When I got home I told my dog...we laughed a lot.

If the number 666 is considered evil, then technically, 25.8069758011 is the root of all evil.

I asked google how often do people die in hot air balloon accidents?
Turns out it's only once...

I went to school for magicians but failed the final exam.
They were all trick questions.

Why did the dad joke cross the road?
To get to the other sigh.

I went to the doctors and he said: "Don't eat anything fatty."
I said: "What like burgers?"
He said: "No fatty, just don't eat anything."

I went into Hungry Jack's today, the woman serving had a badge on her left breast that said Pat.
To cut a long story short I am now banned from Hungry Jacks.

Your underwear is much too tight and very revealing," I said to my wife.
She said, "Wear your own then."

My wife just put on her new dress and then told me to zip it.
I have no idea what I've done wrong. I didn't say anything!

My wife originally agreed to go out with me after I bought her a bottle of ginger ale.
I Schwepped her off her feet.

Of course, i'd never considered joining the Mile High club.
That's just plane bonkers.
